How well are we doing?

In July 2018, the federal government will file its official government report on the state of children in Canada. The Canadian Coalition for the Rights of Children (CCRC) will host national conversations prior to the United Nations Committee Review on the Rights of the Child in 2019.

CCRC invites you to join the conversation in Ottawa! Your feedback will inform dialogue with government leaders and provide input into the international review process.

Save the Date!
November 21-22, Ottawa, Ontario
(Venue TBA)

By working together, we can use the UN Review process to make real progress for children in Canada.
