Children Write!

Child Rights Competition

This year's writing prompts:

(Choose one or more questions)

Theme: Expressing your views (Article 12)

- 1 Describe your vision for a child-friendly community.
- 2 Do you feel heard when you speak about issues that you care about? Can you provide an example of how you've used your voice, and what happened as a result?
- 3 What do you think decision makers can do to ensure that children are heard and included in the decision-making process in matters that concern them?
- 4 Is there a book or author that has helped you learn about your rights or inspired you to get involved in an issue that you care about? What was the book or who was the author? How did the book or author impact you?

Prizes
Prizes will be available for every age group!

This year, our prizes are sponsored by the Love of Reading Foundation!

The CCRC and its board members do not necessarily endorse sponsors views that they express on their multiple media platforms or the products/services they offer.
