

We Stand as Equals

by Lucas A. Wang

We stand as equals, now and forevermore
Evil's grip, we'll strive to deplore
Our rights, we vow to never forsake
Our voices, we'll raise and make them quake

Food and water, our birthright claim
No soul left hungry, our duty to sustain Protection deserved, for one and all
Tyranny defeated; we'll stand tall

Grateful for all that we receive
Our compassion, let's never leave
For our rights, we must fight
With our utmost might

Gratitude for what we have in hand
Our compassion, an unwavering stand
For our rights, we will fight
With every breath, until the end of our sight
