

forms of violence, including corporal punishment.

In 2015, the Truth and Reconciliation Commission called on Canada to end the legal justification for corporal punishment.

In 2018, Canada became a 'Pathfinder Country' for the Global Partnership to End Violence against Children, which requires Canada to become a global leader.

Corporal punishment is prohibited in 62 countries.

Canada is not one of them.

27 more countries are committed to prohibiting corporal punishment.

Canada is not one of them.

Research consistently shows that corporal punishment has SOLELY negative impacts on children: